

Building an Age-Inclusive Workplace Culture

When workplaces support people of all ages, they strengthen collaboration and reduce misunderstandings.

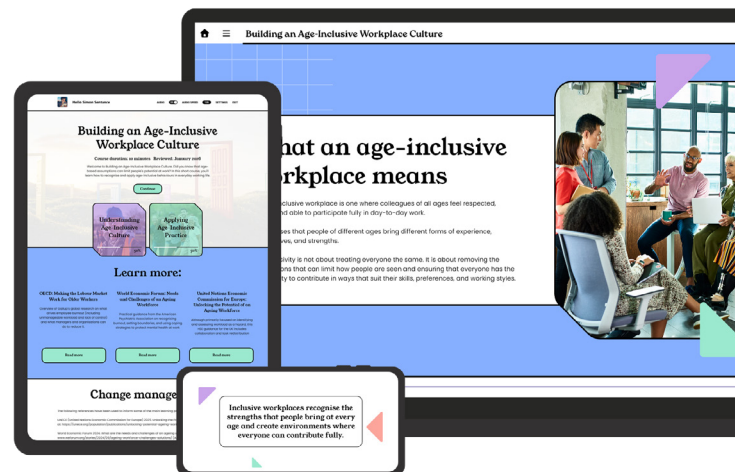

New course - Release date: April 2026

About the product

Did you know that age-based assumptions can limit people's potential at work? Inclusive workplaces recognise the strengths that people bring at every age and create environments where everyone can contribute fully.

We are pleased to announce that our latest Kineo Short is available now and will show you how to recognise and apply age-inclusive behaviours in everyday working life.

The course will bust myths and encourage learners to apply age-inclusive practices in everyday work situations.

This course is for people at all levels of their career and is perfect for busy professionals, the course is designed to give you practical and actionable results in only 10 minutes.

Unit ID: 47335 Seat time: 10 minutes
